Four new Good Practice videos for you

Since the last newsletter we were doing some work, and we happily inform you that you have four new videos.

Check out the videos at Interreg Europe Progress, Youtube channel

1. Red Faith - Airborne Technologies for Ecosystem Services is the Good Practice video #3 and it explains to us in a dynamic way that ecosystem services can be evaluated by innovative technologies such as remote sensing and other more news based in drones
2. The good practice video #4 is Forest Laboratory Tool - Creaf, in this one we will see a Transferable Tool. In this one we will explain how we use different apps in the laboratory to visualize and download integrated information using different algorithms.
3. Forest for Water #5 is an educational video that has an outreach message where we will see the payment for ecosystems services in practice, a case study.
4. The last video of this newsletter is the "Environmental Sensitivity Mapping Webtool" a video shared with PROGRESS by the Environment Protection Agency Ireland to present this good practice tool to analyse ecosystem

A new project is here... Protect the Bees!

The All Ireland Pollinator Plan and the Farmland Pollinator Programme are the main feature of a piece from the Policy Learning Team of Interreg Europe.

Protect the bees! The Irish way its a project that has the purpose of transforming the island in a pollinator friendly enviornment. Developed by a fifteen member All-Ireland steering group, the AIPP pursued the goal of turning Ireland, North and South, into a pollinator friendly island.

The screenshot shows the Interreg Europe website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Interreg Europe logo, the European Union flag, and user options like 'My Interreg Europe 100%', 'Logout', 'Search', and social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and Instagram. Below the navigation bar, there are menu items: 'About us', 'Projects', 'Policy Learning Platform', 'News and events', 'In my country', 'Library', 'Help', 'Contact us', and 'COVID-19'. The main content area features a large image of bees on a honeycomb. The article title 'Protect the bees! The Irish way' is prominently displayed. Below the title, there is a date '16/09/2021' and the text 'Policy Learning Platform'. The article text discusses the decline of wild pollinator species and genetic diversity, mentioning the IUCN European Red List. A small image of a window with shutters is shown next to a call to action: 'Sign up for the Interreg Europe newsletter'.

Do you know other Interreg projects we can add to our review? Do you have other networking suggestions for PROGRESS?

Engage with PROGRESS, here is how!

The PROGRESS project continues its way to 2022, and we would like you to use all the opportunities to engage, participate, learn and apply good practices and other ideas from PROGRESS. So here are a few suggestions for you:

- Use the good practices videos (2 minutes long) as stories and examples to show in your meetings, to your peers on how your policy action can uptake ecosystem service criteria.
- Connect with us on social networks (see bottom) and mention us in your

This is InterregEurope PROGRESS

PROGRESS is a 2019-2023 InterregEurope project funded by the ERDF with 1,4 M €. Its aim is to tackle Operational Plans at regional or national level and other strategies dealing with the protection and valuing biodiversity and ecosystem services. The approach is based on policy learning and capacity building of the partner organizations and relevant stakeholders of the concerned policy subsystems under 4 strands: measurement of cost & benefit of ecosystem services, Integration into policy and Planning, innovative payments for ecosystem services and landscape sustainability governance.
