10.45 – 11.15 Coffee break

11.15 – 12.30 Cross-assessment and convergence of energy performance certification and buildings' data digitalisation

Data on energy performance of buildings are precious for accelerating the EU renovation wave. Considered as a first tool to trigger action, Energy Performance Certification (EPC) has gained a lot of attention lately, with projects working on making their assessment and use more efficient, developing their data accessibility with intelligence, and exploring convergence among the different national EPC schemes. What can we take out from some of these projects?

Moderator: Clemence Pricken, FEDARENE

- Cross-assessment of Energy Performance Certificates, so close and yet so far, with Norberto Fueyo, University of Zaragoza UNIZAR, CrossCERT project;
- Cross-convergence of Energy Performance Certificates, QualDeEPC project.
 - o EPC Policy Recommendations with Stefan Thomas – Wuppertal Institute
 - o Finding common grounds, with Margarita Puente – ESCAN
 - o Building Passport with (tbc) – AURA-EE
- Data share and harmonisation of building renovation, Matrycs project:
 - o Introduction to the Matrycs project and the pilots focusing on EPC and SECAP with Gema Hernandez -Cartif
 - o Pilots about district heating and energy efficiency – with Marina Bartolomé – Veolia.
- Closed and conclusions: Alfredo Cadórniga, EREN
