Energy policy in the Lubelskie Voivodeship with a 2030 perspective

Adam Głąb

Marshal Office of Lubelskie Voivodeship

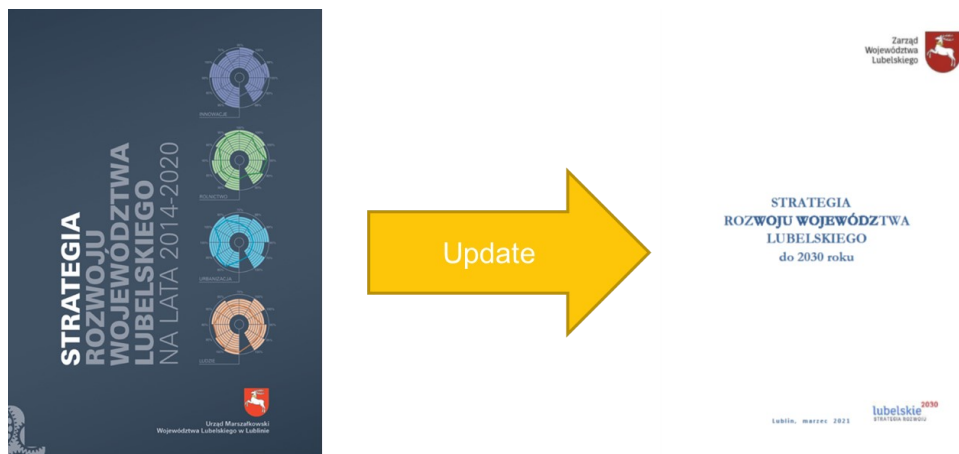

Rome, 19th April 2023 r.

Activities and effects under the AgroRES project in Lubelskie Voivodship

- Analysis of the region in terms of the development and use of RES, especially in agriculture and in rural areas,
- Identification of examples of Good Practices in the field of RES in the region,
- Establishing a Local Stakeholder Group,
- Impact on the selected regional strategic document,
- Development of an Action Plan.

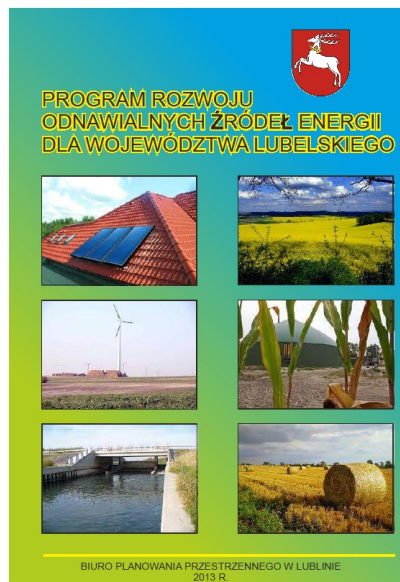

Impact on the selected strategic document

- The selected document was Strategy for the Lubelskie Voivodeship 2014-2020 (with a 2030 perspective)
- Introducing provisions on RES in agriculture into the content of the document, as well as emphasizing the importance of the development of local energy cooperatives and clusters

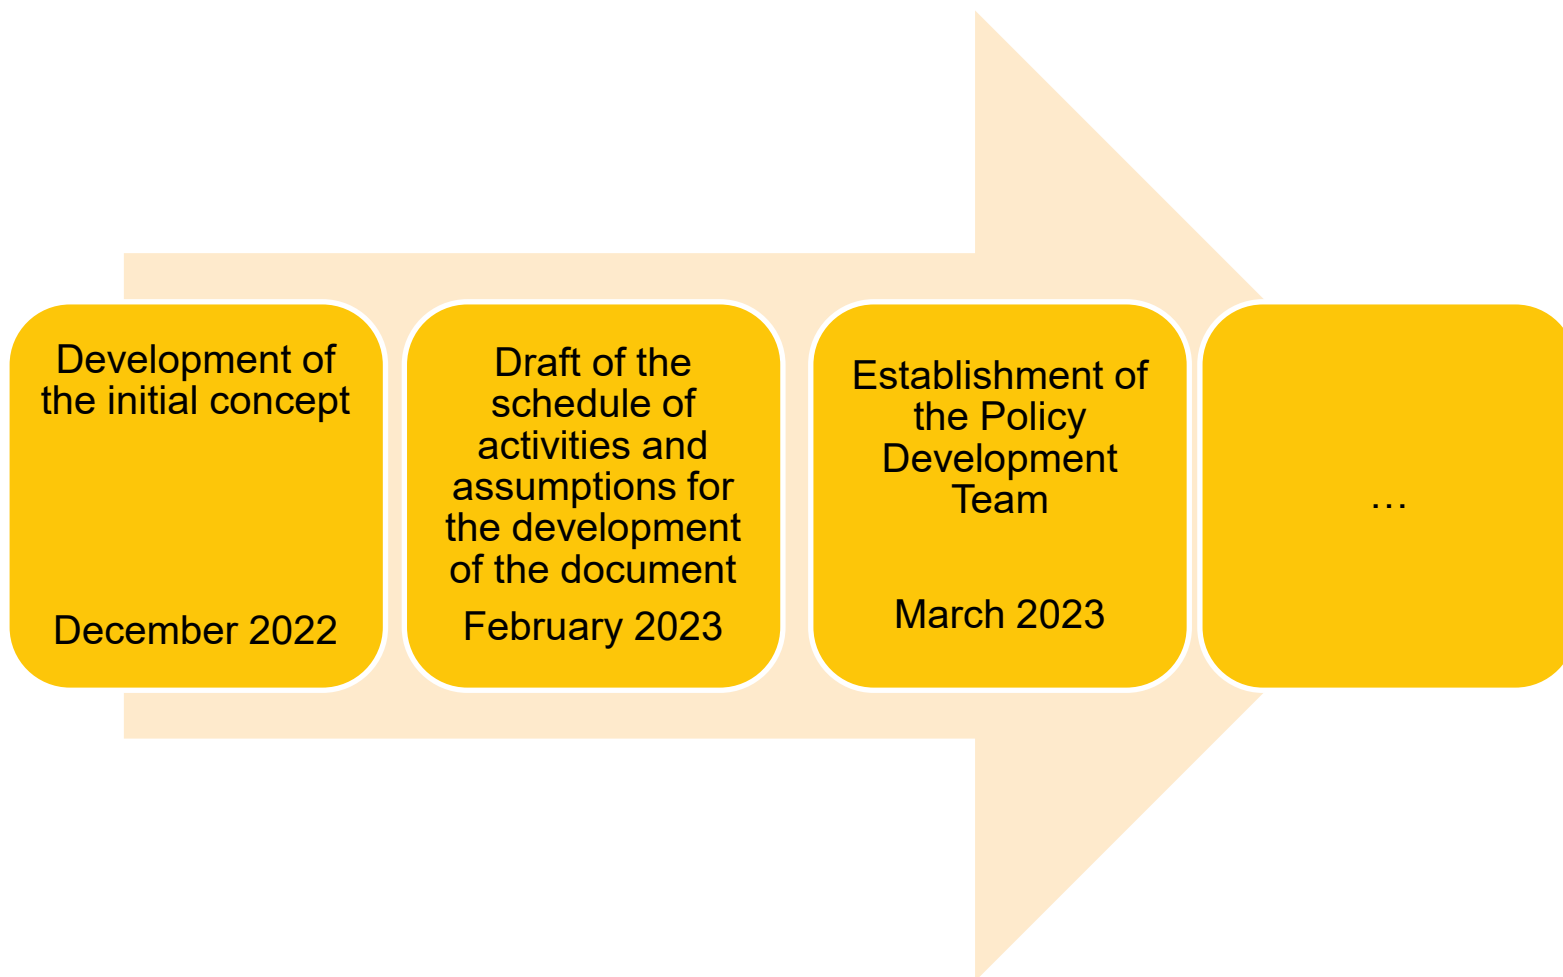

Impact on the selected strategic document

- The Strategy is a very general document, describing all aspects of the functioning of the region, therefore it is planned to develop or update industry documents for individual areas.
- In the Lubelskie Voivodship, there are two separate documents on Energy and RES, which will be combined, and a Policy will be created

"Energy policy in the Lubelskie Voivodeship in the perspective of 2030"

Progress on the new energy policy

Expectations regarding the new Energy Policy

- Development of one common document covering energy and RES,
- Updating to current conditions,
- Current analysis (e.g. SWOT),
- Increasing the emphasis on the development and support of distributed energy and local civil energy entities,
- Determination of actions aimed at climate neutrality of the region,
- Increasing energy security in the region,
- Development of guidelines that will facilitate the coordination of all activities related to the development and operation of energy in the Lubelskie Voivodeship
