

Media Release

Article Published 07/03/2018 in www.parakritika.gr

Strong interest of local actors, with the European project ZEROCO2 that participates in MAIX

With the participation of many local stakeholders, on Tuesday 6/3/2018 in MAIX, the latest Local Government Meeting was held within the framework of the European project "Promotion of CO2 Emissions Buildings due to the use of energy in them / ZEROCO2 - INTERREG EUROPE, <http://www.interregeurope.eu/zeroco2> ".

Read more

<http://www.parakritika.gr/2018/03/07/έντονο-το-ενδιαφέρον-από-τους-τοπικού/>

Mr. Angelakis Georgios, Managing Director of the MAIX Project, presented the actions of the project that have been implemented so far in Crete while referring to the preparation of an Action Plan, which is in the final stage of its completion and will include regional studies, more efficient energy technologies through a cost / benefit analysis, inventory and analysis of existing regional policies, identification of market needs in relation to the available financial instruments and the a good practice guide.