

Media Release

Article Published 07/03/2018 in hania.news

Chania Interest of local actors for the European project ZEROCO2

With the participation of many local stakeholders, the last meeting of local bodies in the framework of the European project "Promotion of zero-energy buildings due to energy use in them / ZEROCO2 - INTERREG EUROPE, <http://www.interregeurope.eu/zeroco2> “.

Read more

<http://hania.news/2018/03/07/ενδιαφέρον-τοπικών-φορέων-για-το-ευρ/>

Mr. Yannis Vourdoubas, MAIC's scientific associate, then referred to the concept of almost zero-carbon buildings and their benefits, the potential for building such buildings at both regional and national level in technologies that can be used for this purpose as well as the existing financing possibilities for the creation of such buildings. Reference was also made to buildings of virtually zero energy consumption as foreseen in the current legislation and their differences with respect to zero emission buildings.