GOCORE Overview

Improving policies

All partners are governments or connected to governments.

All partners have a policy instrument to support local citizens and want to improve that instrument.

During GOCORE, policy instruments (of each partner) will be improved through peer review, knowledge exchange, community participation events, among other things.

GOCORE Overview

Engaging communities

GOCORE aims to involve local communities in local policy-making and look at new ways of community participation.

GOCORE ultimate goal is to increase residents' trust in the government.
