

The INERTWall

Follow our progresses, watch how we build INERTWASTE!

Soon after the official launch of the project, the four regions have started gathering and engaging their local stakeholders to gather feedback, better understand how the project can answer the local needs, and ensure a strong participation of everyone. Partners are investigating the first good practices and preparing for their first Transnational Learning Journey (TLJ).

