

Distribution and dissemination of 10 educational kits “WOLF IN A BACKPACK”

Prepared educational kits were distributed to (reception forms enclosed):

- Natural History Museum of Slovenia (Slovenian oldest cultural and scientific institution)
- Triglav National Park (steward of the project)
- DINA Centre (steward of the project)
- Univesity of Ljubljana (for student, teacher and children education)
- PR department of Slovenia Forest Service (for fairs and festivals)
- 3 Regional Units of Slovenia Forest Service (for education of local teachers and pre-school and school children)
- 1 kit for further dissemination and implementation also after the project was kept within the SFS large carnivore team

Educational kit and proposed educational activities were disseminated at 7 events:

- Open day of Slovenia Forest Service and Slovenian Forestry Institute – workshops for pre-school and school children (report enclosed)
- Workshop for primary school children and training for DINA Centre staff (report enclosed)
- Training for forest educators (report enclosed)
- As a part of 5-day student camp (report enclosed, E1)
- Final conference of the project in Trento (E4 action, Vesna Mihelič Oražem presenting; workshop at MUSE carried out by Vesna Mihelič Oražem and Maja Sever)
- Workshop for children and Triglav National Park staff carried out by UL (link to the news: <https://www.lifewolfalps.eu/en/we-visited-triglav-national-parks-junior-rangers-as-part-of-our-young-ranger-project-activity/>)
- Workshop at the event of the SFS Regional Unit Novo mesto (see the photo)

